Fall Message

Fall is a time of transformation. We see it in nature. The leaves begin to show burst of colors. The air has a crisp feel to it. We can look to the sky and see the bird's begin their migration south. We begin to transform our homes for the coming winter. We seem to look to the fall as a time to prepare for what is to come. It is also a time when we should be preparing our self spiritually.

We should be asking ourselves what we can do to improve our relationship with God and our church. It starts with our children. Ask yourself what you are doing to prepare them. It is never too early to start their religious education. Have you enrolled them in religious education classes yet? Do you bring them to church? Do you pray with them and talk about faith?

Then, ask, what am I doing to transform? Do you attend church regularly and receive Holy Communion? Have you been to confession lately? Do you pray daily and make God apart of your life? Do you help your church when called upon, or think of ways that you can help?

I call upon all of us this fall to embrace the change in the season and look for ways to strengthen your faith and be more involved with our church. May God Bless all of you with a stronger faith.
